- IV. Old Business
 - A. Educational Conference was good, we presented Chapter's PAC donation to PAC, and donated five $100 Amazon cards.

- i. Leslie reports the meeting went well. KT attendees presented our donation to PAC. Amazon cards were also donated for the raffle.
 - ii. E. Kim reports that this was a good experience. She realized how important fund raising was to have CANP lobby for our profession.
 - iii. C. Shearer reports that there were a lot of education seminars to attend.
 - iv. O. Wright reports it was great conference. After the educational sessions she was able to attend the expo which was beneficial. She also found benefit in networking with other NPs.
 - B. HOD, Lobby Day-there will not be legislative visits at this year's Lobby Day
 - i. House of Delegates will be taking place on May 7th, 2022.
 - ii. Lobby Day will not be with legislators this year. Leslie will be attending both.
- V. New Business
 - A. AB 890, AB 852, SB 1375
 - i. Leslie reports we are still dealing with these bills. She encourages all members to get involved and Zoom into the BRN meetings that are taking place.
 - ii. SB 1375 is a newer bill. Leslie explained this bill which is sponsored by T. Atkins is for NPs to be able to perform abortions without physician supervision, and removes the transition to practice time for NPs currently practicing. If this passes, this will be advantageous for AB 890 and AB 852.
 - iii. Leslie explained that AB 890 and AB 852 deal with the business code as well as full practice authority.
 - iv. Leslie does not know if there are any new resolutions. Our next chapter meeting will be after HOD. If there are any new resolutions, she will email the members about this.
 - B. Maria Rubolino-Gallego, 2022 Kern Tulare NP of the Year presentation
 - i. Thank you. Very honored to be nominated for this award.
