39 CANP ANNUAL EDUCATIONAL CONFERENCE

SUPPORTED BY nso[®]

“Knowledge is power.
Information is liberating.
Education is the premise of progress.”

— KOFI ANNAN, 7th Secretary-General of the United Nations

These words perfectly define the concept behind the CANP 39th Annual Educational Conference. In a single location, for four amazing days, you will be immersed in the knowledge, information, and education that can elevate the health care industry to extraordinary heights of excellence.

From illuminating educational sessions to a dynamic exhibitor expo ... from lively social events to abundant networking opportunities ... this is where you'll get up to speed on the current status of health care, where it's headed, and how you can help ensure a bright future for the industry.

Each year, our annual educational conference brings together more than 600 nurse practitioners and health care professionals to exchange ideas and share strategies. It's your singular source to review issues affecting the industry, learn practice-enhancing strategies, and work as a team to promote the vital work performed by nurse practitioners. The agenda is rich with stimulating information, powerful advocacy, and spirited solidarity, providing a comprehensive picture of today's health care industry.

Throughout the conference, you'll be in the company of experts who will provide the latest information on what's happening in the nurse practitioner profession and pending legislation that affects NPs in California. When you're not attending one of the many engaging sessions, you can explore the expo's vast and varied exhibits, featuring technology specialists, pharmaceutical companies, medical equipment providers, insurance carriers, pharmacies, employers and schools for nurse practitioners, and more. There's something to capture your attention and interest at every turn, so prepare to take notes. Lots of notes.

"All work and no play..." you know
the rest.

The conference agenda wouldn't be complete without a healthy dose of social activities, so be sure to add whopping good fun to your list. We're offering an early-morning yoga session to get your day off to an energizing start ... a 5K Fun Run ... and the renowned Evening Event, featuring dinner, entertainment, and just maybe a surprise or two.

It all takes place amidst the breathtaking natural beauty of Newport Beach, where the spectacular Southern California coast provides the perfect backdrop.
